National Van Lines, Inc. announces new agent Copper Palm Moving & Storage

Broadview, IL January 29, 2016 – National Van Lines is proud to announce a new agent is joining our team. It is our pleasure to welcome Blake Miller and Copper Palm Moving & Storage.

Blake Miller, the owner of Copper Palm Moving and Storage, has been moving your family, friends, and neighbors in Austin, Texas area for 26 years. Blake Miller knew that the key to success for any service based business was obvious, it's SERVICE. It's this simple concept that is the cornerstone to his latest adventure in moving. Combining interior decorating and real estate staging to the moving component was a natural extension of SERVICE to most homeowners.

Copper Palm Moving and Storage works with you every step of the way to make moving your household or office as easy and economical as possible. Getting the job done right, the first time, is their main goal. At Copper Palm Moving, they make moving a "breeze!" They guarantee it!

Part of Blake Miller and his guarantee is to provide professional and experienced movers, fully equipped moving trucks, FREE on-site estimates, highly competitive rates, and professional staff to assist with every step of your move.

Copper Palm Moving & Storage provides the full spectrum of moving services. Whether moving from an apartment, condo, house, or office, they are there to provide personalized customer service. Their attention to detail coupled with the old-fashioned, but never out dated, work ethic is a successful combination in the completion of a move. Their goal is to provide a positive moving experience that will leave a long-lasting effect on great customer service and a job well done. It's about service for these guys, and it never stops.

Blake Miller's Copper Palm Moving & Storage is located in Austin, Texas and has been operating successfully for 30 years. Copper Palm Moving and Storage has made the decision to join with National Van Lines as of December 1, 2015.

Background:

Founded in 1929, National Van Lines is an ESOP-owned enterprise that began in the Chicago area as a one horse and wagon moving service and expanded to a nationwide fleet of trucks. The company's services include residential and commercial moving and storage domestically and internationally. National Van Lines has been designated a Pro Mover company by the American Moving & Storage Association and holds an A+ rating with the BBB.
